

Note about this consolidation

These are the consolidated Model Defamation Provisions (as at 22 September 2023) prepared by the Australasian Parliamentary Counsel's Committee.

The Model Defamation Provisions were originally approved on 21 March 2005 by the Standing Committee of Attorneys-General.

This consolidation includes amendments made since the original approval by the following Provisions:

- The Model Defamation Amendment Provisions 2020. On 27 July 2020, the Council of Attorneys-General approved all the amendments made by these Provisions.
- The Model Defamation Amendment (Digital Intermediaries) Provisions 2023. On 22 September 2023, the members of the Standing Council of Attorneys-General (other than South Australia) approved by majority all the amendments made by these Provisions, subject to the completion of Cabinet processes where necessary.
- The Model Defamation Amendment (Absolute Privilege) Provisions 2023. On 22 September 2023, the Standing Council of Attorneys-General approved by majority all the amendments made by these Provisions, subject to the completion of Cabinet processes where necessary.

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Part 1 Preliminary

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Citation

This Act may be cited as the Defamation Act 2005.

Jurisdictional note. Appropriate local provisions to be inserted. However, a uniform form of citation is suggested, e.g., the Defamation Act 2005.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on 1 January 2006.

Jurisdictional note. Appropriate local provisions to be inserted with a view to commencing the model provisions on the same date in each jurisdiction.

3 Objects of Act

The objects of this Act are:

- (a) to enact provisions to promote uniform laws of defamation in Australia, and
- (b) to ensure that the law of defamation does not place unreasonable limits on freedom of expression and, in particular, on the publication and discussion of matters of public interest and importance, and
- (c) to provide effective and fair remedies for persons whose reputations are harmed by the publication of defamatory matter, and
- (d) to promote speedy and non-litigious methods of resolving disputes about the publication of defamatory matter.

4 Definitions

In this Act:

access prevention step, in relation to the publication of digital matter, means a step:

- (a) to remove the matter, or
- (b) to block, disable or otherwise prevent access, whether by some or all persons, to the matter.

applicable period for an offer to make amends is defined by section 14.

associated entity has the same meaning as in section 50AAA of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

Australian court means any court established by or under a law of an Australian jurisdiction (including a court conducting committal proceedings for an indictable offence).

Australian jurisdiction means:

- (a) a State, or
- (b) a Territory, or
- (c) the Commonwealth.

Australian tribunal means any tribunal (other than a court) established by or under a law of an Australian jurisdiction that has the power to take evidence from witnesses before it on oath or affirmation (including a Royal Commission or other special commission of inquiry).

caching service is defined for Part 2, Division 2A by section 10B.

concerns notice is defined by section 12A.

conduit service is defined for Part 2, Division 2A by section 10B.

country includes:

- (a) a federation and a state, territory, province or other part of a federation, and

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

(b) an Australian jurisdiction.

court/Supreme Court.

Jurisdictional note. Appropriate references to the relevant State or Territory court may need to be inserted in the model provisions if only one court in the jurisdiction deals with defamation matters. However, references to “the court” in the model provisions may be retained for those jurisdictions that provide separately for more than one court to have jurisdiction in defamation matters.

digital intermediary, in relation to the publication of digital matter, means a person, other than an author, originator or poster of the matter, who provides or administers the online service by means of which the matter is published.

Note. There may be more than 1 digital intermediary in relation to the publication of the same digital matter.

digital matter means matter published in electronic form by means of an online service.

document means any record of information, and includes:

- (a) anything on which there is writing, and
- (b) anything on which there are marks, figures, symbols or perforations having a meaning for persons qualified to interpret them, and
- (c) anything from which sounds, images or writings can be reproduced with or without the aid of anything else, and
- (d) a map, plan, drawing or photograph.

electronic communication includes a communication of information in the form of data, text, images or sound (or any combination of these) by means of guided or unguided electromagnetic energy, or both.

excluded corporation means an excluded corporation referred to in section 9.

further particulars notice means a further particulars notice referred to in section 12A (3).

general law means the common law and equity.

matter includes:

- (a) an article, report, advertisement or other thing communicated by means of a newspaper, magazine or other periodical, and
- (b) a program, report, advertisement or other thing communicated by means of television, radio, the Internet or any other form of electronic communication, and
- (c) a letter, note or other writing, and
- (d) a picture, gesture or oral utterance, and
- (e) any other thing by means of which something may be communicated to a person.

offer to make amends means an offer to make amends under Division 1 of Part 3.

online service means a service provided to a person, whether or not it is requested or it is for a fee or reward, to enable the person to use the internet, including, without limitation, a service enabling a person:

- (a) to access or connect to the internet, or
- (b) to use the internet to do 1 or more of the following:
 - (i) send or receive content,
 - (ii) store content,
 - (iii) index content,
 - (iv) search for content,
 - (v) share content,

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

(vi) interact with other persons.

Examples of an online service:

- 1 An internet-based social media platform.
- 2 A forum created or administered by a person using a facility provided by an internet-based social media platform that enables users to share content or interact with other users about a topic.
- 3 A website or other internet-based platform that enables knowledge to be shared by or with its users.

parliamentary body means:

- (a) a parliament or legislature of any country, or
- (b) a house of a parliament or legislature of any country, or
- (c) a committee of a parliament or legislature of any country, or
- (d) a committee of a house or houses of a parliament or legislature of any country.

poster, in relation to the publication of digital matter, means a person who uses the online service by means of which the matter is published for the purpose of communicating the matter to 1 or more other persons.

search engine is defined for Part 2, Division 2A by section 10B.

search engine provider is defined for Part 2, Division 2A by section 10B.

search result is defined for Part 2, Division 2A by section 10B.

substantially true means true in substance or not materially different from the truth.

storage service is defined for Part 2, Division 2A by section 10B.

Territory means the Australian Capital Territory or the Northern Territory.

this jurisdiction means this [State/Territory]*.

Jurisdictional note. The appropriate reference for the jurisdiction is to be inserted by each jurisdiction.

4A Examples and notes

- (1) An example or note at the foot of a provision forms part of this Act.
- (2) An example in this Act:
 - (a) is not exhaustive, and
 - (a) may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision to which it relates.

Jurisdictional note.

- 1 This section does not apply to jurisdictional notes, which are directed to whether or how provisions are to be enacted by participating jurisdictions.
- 2 A jurisdiction may decide whether the enactment of this section is required for the jurisdiction having regard to its Interpretation Act and drafting practices.

5 Act to bind Crown

This Act binds the Crown in right of this jurisdiction and, in so far as the legislative power of the [Parliament/Legislature]* of this jurisdiction permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to enact a provision to ensure that the Crown in right of the jurisdiction and also in all its other capacities is bound by the model provisions.

Part 2 General principles

Division 1 Defamation and the general law

6 Tort of defamation

- (1) This Act relates to the tort of defamation at general law.
- (2) This Act does not affect the operation of the general law in relation to the tort of defamation except to the extent that this Act provides otherwise (whether expressly or by necessary implication).
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), the general law as it is from time to time applies for the purposes of this Act as if the following legislation/or [insert reference to existing defamation Act if only one Act]* had never been enacted [or made]*:
 - (a) [insert reference to existing defamation legislation if more than one Act]*,

Jurisdictional note. As some jurisdictions have codified their defamation law in existing legislation, it may be prudent to “revive” the common law as indicated above. This approach was taken in New South Wales when its defamation code, the Defamation Act 1958, was repealed by section 4 of the Defamation Act 1974. Each jurisdiction should list in proposed subsection (2) any existing laws that are to be repealed by the new law.

7 Distinction between slander and libel abolished

- (1) The distinction at general law between slander and libel is/remains* abolished.

Jurisdictional note. If the distinction has previously been abolished in a jurisdiction, the jurisdiction may choose to enact a provision that states that the distinction “remains” abolished.
- (2) Accordingly, the publication of defamatory matter of any kind is actionable without proof of special damage.

Division 2 Causes of action for defamation

8 Single cause of action for multiple defamatory imputations in same matter

A person has a single cause of action for defamation in relation to the publication of defamatory matter about the person even if more than one defamatory imputation about the person is carried by the matter.

9 Certain corporations do not have cause of action for defamation

- (1) A corporation has no cause of action for defamation in relation to the publication of defamatory matter about the corporation unless it was an excluded corporation at the time of the publication.
- (2) A corporation is an excluded corporation if:
 - (a) the objects for which it is formed do not include obtaining financial gain for its members or corporators, or
 - (b) it has fewer than 10 employees and is not an associated entity of another corporation,and the corporation is not a public body.
- (3) In counting employees for the purposes of subsection (2)(b), part-time employees are to be taken into account as an appropriate fraction of a full-time equivalent.
- (4) [Repealed]
- (5) Subsection (1) does not affect any cause of action for defamation that an individual associated with a corporation has in relation to the publication of defamatory matter

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

about the individual even if the publication of the same matter also defames the corporation.

(6) In this section:

corporation includes any body corporate or corporation constituted by or under a law of any country (including by exercise of a prerogative right), whether or not a public body.

employee, in relation to a corporation, includes any individual (whether or not an independent contractor) who is:

- (a) engaged in the day to day operations of the corporation other than as a volunteer, and
- (b) subject to the control and direction of the corporation.

public body means a local government body or other governmental or public authority constituted by or under a law of any country.

10 No cause of action for defamation of, or against, deceased persons

- (1) A person (including a personal representative of a deceased person) cannot assert, continue or enforce a cause of action for defamation in relation to:
 - (a) the publication of defamatory matter about a deceased person (whether published before or after his or her death), or
 - (b) the publication of defamatory matter by a person who has died since publishing the matter.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent a court, if it considers it in the interests of justice to do so, from determining the question of costs for proceedings discontinued because of the subsection.

10A Serious harm element of cause of action for defamation

- (1) It is an element (the serious harm element) of a cause of action for defamation that the publication of defamatory matter about a person has caused, or is likely to cause, serious harm to the reputation of the person.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), harm to the reputation of an excluded corporation referred to in section 9 is not serious harm unless it has caused, or is likely to cause, the corporation serious financial loss.
- (3) The judicial officer (and not the jury) in defamation proceedings is to determine whether the serious harm element is established.
Jurisdictional note. The reference to a jury may be omitted in those jurisdictions that do not provide for jury trials for defamation proceedings.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), the judicial officer may (whether on the application of a party or on the judicial officer's own motion):
 - (a) determine whether the serious harm element is established at any time before the trial for the proceedings commences or during the trial, and
 - (b) make any orders the judicial officer considers appropriate concerning the determination of the issue (including dismissing the proceedings if satisfied the element is not established).
- (5) If a party applies for the serious harm element to be determined before the trial for the proceedings commences, the judicial officer is to determine the issue as soon as practicable before the trial commences unless satisfied that there are special circumstances justifying the postponement of the determination to a later stage of the proceedings (including during the trial).

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Part 2 General principles

- (6) The matters a judicial officer may take into account in deciding whether there are special circumstances for the purposes of subsection (5) include (but are not limited to) the following:
 - (a) the cost implications for the parties,
 - (b) the resources available to the court at the time,
 - (c) the extent to which establishing the serious harm element is linked to other issues for determination during the trial for the proceedings.
- (7) Without limiting subsection (5), the judicial officer may determine the serious harm element is not established on the pleadings without the need for further evidence if satisfied that the pleaded particulars are insufficient to establish the element.
- (8) Nothing in this section limits the powers that a judicial officer may have apart from this section to dismiss defamation proceedings (whether before or after the trial commences).

Division 2A Exemptions from liability for digital intermediaries

10B Definitions

In this Division:

caching service means an online service whose principal function is to provide automatic, intermediate and temporary storage of content for the purpose of making the onward electronic transmission of the content more efficient for its users.

Example of a caching service: A service for temporarily and automatically storing files that are most frequently downloaded by users of a website to speed up the download time for the files.

conduit service means an online service whose principal function is to enable its users to access or use networks or other infrastructure to connect to, or send or receive data by means of, the internet.

Examples of a conduit service:

- 1 A service provided by an internet service provider enabling its users to connect to the internet.
- 2 An internet-based service enabling its users to send emails or send text messages to other persons.

search engine means a software application or system designed to enable its users to search for content on the internet.

search engine provider for a search engine means a person who maintains, or provides users with access to the search functions of, the search engine.

search result means a result generated by a search engine that is limited to identifying a webpage on which content is located by reference to 1 or more of the following:

- (a) the title of the webpage,
- (b) a hyperlink to the webpage,
- (c) an extract from the webpage,
- (d) an image from the webpage.

storage service means an online service, other than a caching service, whose principal function is to enable its users to store content remotely.

Example of a storage service: An internet-based cloud service enabling its users to store documents, videos or photographs for later retrieval.

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Part 2 General principles

10C Exemption for digital intermediaries providing caching, conduit or storage services

- (1) A digital intermediary is not liable for defamation for the publication of digital matter if the intermediary proves:
 - (a) the matter was published using 1 or more of the following services provided by the intermediary:
 - (i) a caching service,
 - (ii) a conduit service,
 - (iii) a storage service, and
 - (b) the intermediary's role in the publication was limited to providing 1 or more of the services mentioned in paragraph (a), and
 - (c) the intermediary did not do any of the following:
 - (i) initiate the steps required to publish the matter,
 - (ii) select any of the recipients of the matter,
 - (iii) encourage the poster of the matter to publish the matter,
 - (iv) edit the content of the matter, whether before or after it was published,
 - (v) promote the matter, whether before or after it was published.
- (2) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply in relation to action taken because it is required by or under a law of an Australian jurisdiction or an order of an Australian court or Australian tribunal.

Example. Action taken to comply with a code of conduct or other document regulating conduct that a digital intermediary is required to comply with by a law of an Australian jurisdiction.
- (3) Subsection (1) applies regardless of whether the digital intermediary knew, or ought reasonably to have known, the digital matter was defamatory.

10D Exemption for search engine providers

- (1) A search engine provider for a search engine is not liable for defamation for:
 - (a) the publication of digital matter comprised of search results if the provider's role was limited to providing an automated process for the user of the search engine to generate the results, or
 - (b) the publication of digital matter to which the search results provide a hyperlink if the provider's role in the publication of the matter is limited to the role mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to search results, or to digital matter to which the search results provide hyperlinks, to the extent the results are promoted or prioritised by the search engine provider because of a payment or other benefit given to the provider by or on behalf of a third party.
- (3) Subsection (1) applies regardless of whether the search engine provider knew, or ought reasonably to have known, the digital matter was defamatory.

10E Early determination of digital intermediary exemptions

- (1) The judicial officer in defamation proceedings:
 - (a) is to determine whether a defendant has a digital intermediary exemption, and
 - (b) is to determine whether a digital intermediary exemption is established as soon as practicable before the trial for the proceedings commences unless satisfied that there are good reasons to postpone the determination to a later stage of the proceedings, and

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

- (c) may make any orders the judicial officer considers appropriate concerning the determination of the issue, including dismissing the proceedings if satisfied the digital intermediary exemption is established.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1):
 - (a) the following matters are relevant in deciding whether there are good reasons to postpone the determination of whether a digital intermediary exemption is established to a later stage of the proceedings:
 - (i) the cost implications for the parties,
 - (ii) the resources available to the court at the time,
 - (iii) the extent to which technical or scientific issues are raised in the proceedings,
 - (iv) the extent to which establishing the digital intermediary exemption is linked to other issues for determination during the trial for the proceedings, and
 - (b) the judicial officer may determine a digital intermediary exemption is established on the pleadings without the need for further evidence if satisfied that the pleaded particulars are sufficient to establish the exemption.
- (3) Nothing in this section limits the powers that a judicial officer may have apart from this section to dismiss defamation proceedings, whether before or after the trial for the proceedings commences.
- (4) In this section:
digital intermediary exemption means an exemption from liability for defamation mentioned in section 10C or 10D.

Division 3 Choice of law

11 Choice of law for defamation proceedings

- (1) If a matter is published wholly within a particular Australian jurisdictional area, the substantive law that is applicable in that area must be applied in this jurisdiction to determine any cause of action for defamation based on the publication.
- (2) If there is a multiple publication of matter in more than one Australian jurisdictional area, the substantive law applicable in the Australian jurisdictional area with which the harm occasioned by the publication as a whole has its closest connection must be applied in this jurisdiction to determine each cause of action for defamation based on the publication.
- (3) In determining the Australian jurisdictional area with which the harm occasioned by a publication of matter has its closest connection, a court may take into account:
 - (a) the place at the time of publication where the plaintiff was ordinarily resident or, in the case of a corporation that may assert a cause of action for defamation, the place where the corporation had its principal place of business at that time, and
 - (b) the extent of publication in each relevant Australian jurisdictional area, and
 - (c) the extent of harm sustained by the plaintiff in each relevant Australian jurisdictional area, and
 - (d) any other matter that the court considers relevant.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, the substantive law applicable in an Australian jurisdictional area does not include any law prescribing rules for choice of law that differ from the rules prescribed by this section.

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Part 2 General principles

(5) In this section:

Australian jurisdictional area means:

- (a) the geographical area of Australia that lies within the territorial limits of a particular State (including its coastal waters), but not including any territory, place or other area referred to in paragraph (c), or
- (b) the geographical area of Australia that lies within the territorial limits of a particular Territory (including its coastal waters), but not including any territory, place or other area referred to in paragraph (c), or
- (c) any territory, place or other geographical area of Australia over which the Commonwealth has legislative competence but over which no State or Territory has legislative competence.

geographical area of Australia includes:

- (a) the territorial sea of Australia, and
- (b) the external Territories of the Commonwealth.

Jurisdictional note. In the Interpretation Acts of a number of jurisdictions, "Australia" is defined to exclude the external Territories of the Commonwealth. It has been assumed for the purposes of the above definition that each jurisdiction defines the term "external Territory" in its Interpretation Act. However, if this is not the case in a particular jurisdiction, the term "external territory" will need to be defined as well.

multiple publication means publication by a particular person of the same, or substantially the same, matter in substantially the same form to 2 or more persons.

Part 3 Resolution of civil disputes without litigation

Division 1 Concerns notices and offers to make amends

12 Application of Division

- (1) This Division applies if a person (the publisher) publishes matter (the matter in question) that is, or may be, defamatory of another person (the aggrieved person).
- (2) The provisions of this Division may be used instead of the provisions of any rules of court or any other law in relation to payment into court or offers of compromise.
- (3) Nothing in this Division prevents a publisher or aggrieved person from making or accepting a settlement offer in relation to the publication of the matter in question otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Division.

12A Concerns notices

- (1) For the purpose of this Act, a notice is a concerns notice if:
 - (a) the notice:
 - (i) is in writing, and
 - (ii) specifies the location where the matter in question can be accessed (for example, a webpage address), and
 - (iii) informs the publisher of the defamatory imputations that the aggrieved person considers are or may be carried about the aggrieved person by the matter in question (the imputations of concern), and
 - (iv) informs the publisher of the harm that the person considers to be serious harm to the person's reputation caused, or likely to be caused, by the publication of the matter in question, and
 - (v) for an aggrieved person that is an excluded corporation—also informs the publisher of the financial loss that the corporation considers to be serious financial loss caused, or likely to be caused, by the publication of the matter in question, and
 - (b) a copy of the matter in question is, if practicable, provided to the publisher together with the notice.

Note. Section 12B requires a concerns notice to be given before proceedings for defamation can be commenced.

- (2) For the avoidance of doubt, a document that is required to be filed or lodged to commence defamation proceedings cannot be used as a concerns notice.
- (3) If a concerns notice fails to particularise adequately any of the information required by subsection (1)(a)(ii), (iii), (iv) or (v), the publisher may give the aggrieved person a written notice (a further particulars notice) requesting that the aggrieved person provide reasonable further particulars as specified in the further particulars notice about the information concerned.
- (4) An aggrieved person to whom a further particulars notice is given must provide the reasonable further particulars specified in the notice within 14 days (or any further period agreed by the publisher and aggrieved person) after being given the notice.
- (5) An aggrieved person who fails to provide the reasonable further particulars specified in a further particulars notice within the applicable period is taken not to have given the publisher a concerns notice for the purposes of this section.

12B Defamation proceedings cannot be commenced without concerns notice

- (1) An aggrieved person cannot commence defamation proceedings unless:

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

- (a) the person has given the proposed defendant a concerns notice in respect of the matter concerned, and
 - (b) the imputations to be relied on by the person in the proposed proceedings were particularised in the concerns notice, and
 - (c) the applicable period for an offer to make amends has elapsed.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b) does not prevent reliance on:
 - (a) some, but not all, of the imputations particularised in a concerns notice, or
 - (b) imputations that are substantially the same as those particularised in a concerns notice.
- (3) The court may grant leave for proceedings to be commenced despite non-compliance with subsection (1)(c), but only if the proposed plaintiff satisfies the court:
 - (a) the commencement of proceedings after the end of the applicable period for an offer to make amends contravenes the limitation law, or
 - (b) it is just and reasonable to grant leave.
- (4) The commencement of proceedings contravenes the limitation law for the purposes of subsection (3)(a) if the proceedings could not be commenced after the end of the applicable period for an offer to make amends because the court will have ceased to have power to extend the limitation period.
- (5) In this section:

limitation law means [insert reference to provisions of statute of limitations]*.

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to insert a reference to the provisions of its limitation statute corresponding to Schedule 4.1 to these Provisions.

13 Publisher may make offer to make amends

- (1) The publisher may make an offer to make amends to the aggrieved person.
- (2) The offer may be:
 - (a) in relation to the matter in question generally, or
 - (b) limited to any particular defamatory imputations that the publisher accepts that the matter in question carries.
- (3) If 2 or more persons published the matter in question, an offer to make amends by one or more of them does not affect the liability of the other or others.
- (4) An offer to make amends is taken to have been made without prejudice, unless the offer provides otherwise.

14 When offer to make amends may be made

- (1) An offer to make amends cannot be made if:
 - (a) the applicable period for an offer to make amends has expired, or
 - (b) a defence has been served in an action brought by the aggrieved person against the publisher in relation to the matter in question.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, the applicable period for an offer to make amends is:
 - (a) if the aggrieved person has provided further particulars in response to a further particulars notice about a concerns notice after 14 days have elapsed since the concerns notice was given—14 days since the publisher was given the further particulars, or
 - (b) in any other case—28 days since the publisher was given a concerns notice by the aggrieved person.

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Part 3 Resolution of civil disputes without litigation

- (3) If a publisher gives more than one further particulars notice, subsection (2)(a) applies only in respect of the first notice.
- (4) [Repealed]
- (5) [Repealed]

15 Content of offer to make amends

- (1) An offer to make amends:
 - (a) must be in writing, and
 - (b) must be readily identifiable as an offer to make amends under this Division, and
 - (b1) must provide for the offer to be open for acceptance for at least 28 days commencing on the day the offer is made, and
 - (c) if the offer is limited to any particular defamatory imputations—must state that the offer is so limited and particularise the imputations to which the offer is limited, and
 - (d) must include an offer to publish, or join in publishing, a reasonable correction of, or a clarification of or additional information about, the matter in question or, if the offer is limited to any particular defamatory imputations, the imputations to which the offer is limited, and
 - (e) if material containing the matter has been given to someone else by the publisher or with the publisher's knowledge—must include an offer to take, or join in taking, reasonable steps to tell the other person that the matter is or may be defamatory of the aggrieved person, and
 - (f) must include an offer to pay the expenses reasonably incurred by the aggrieved person before the offer was made and the expenses reasonably incurred by the aggrieved person in considering the offer.
- (1A) In addition to the matters referred to in subsection (1), an offer to make amends may include any other kind of offer, or particulars of any other action taken by the publisher, to redress the harm sustained by the aggrieved person because of the matter in question, including (but not limited to):
 - (a) an offer to publish, or join in publishing, an apology in relation to the matter in question or, if the offer is limited to any particular defamatory imputations, the imputations to which the offer is limited, or
 - (b) if the matter is digital matter—an offer to take access prevention steps in relation to the matter, or
 - (c) an offer to pay compensation for any economic or non-economic loss of the aggrieved person, or
 - (d) the particulars of any correction or apology made, or action taken, before the date of the offer.
- (1B) If the matter in question is digital matter, an offer to take access prevention steps may be made instead of, or in addition to, either or both of the offers mentioned in subsection (1)(d) and (e).
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1A)(c), an offer to pay compensation may comprise or include any one or more of the following:
 - (a) an offer to pay a stated amount,
 - (b) an offer to pay an amount to be agreed between the publisher and the aggrieved person,

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

- (c) an offer to pay an amount determined by an arbitrator appointed, or agreed on, by the publisher and the aggrieved person,
 - (d) an offer to pay an amount determined by a court.
- (3) If an offer to make amends is accepted, a court may, on the application of the aggrieved person or publisher, determine:
 - (a) if the offer provides for a court to determine the amount of compensation payable under the offer—the amount of compensation to be paid under the offer, and
 - (b) any other question that arises about what must be done to carry out the terms of the offer.
- (4) The powers conferred on a court by subsection (3) are exercisable:
 - (a) if the aggrieved person has brought proceedings against the publisher in any court for defamation in relation to the matter in question, by that court in those proceedings, and
 - (b) except as provided in paragraph (a), by the Supreme Court.

Jurisdictional note. This subsection may need refinement in those jurisdictions in which only one court has jurisdiction to determine defamation matters.

16 Withdrawal of offer to make amends

- (1) An offer to make amends may be withdrawn before it is accepted by notice in writing given to the aggrieved person.
- (2) A publisher who has withdrawn an offer to make amends may make a renewed offer.
- (3) A renewed offer may (but need not) be in the same terms as the withdrawn offer.
- (4) A renewed offer is to be treated as a new offer (including for the purposes of section 14).
- (5) However, the time limit specified in section 14 for the making of offers to make amends does not prevent the making of a renewed offer that is not in the same terms as the withdrawn offer if:
 - (a) the renewed offer represents a genuine attempt by the publisher to address matters of concern raised by the aggrieved person about the withdrawn offer, and
 - (b) the renewed offer is made within 14 days after the withdrawal of the withdrawn offer or any other period agreed by the publisher and the aggrieved person.

17 Effect of acceptance of offer to make amends

- (1) If the publisher carries out the terms of an offer to make amends (including payment of any compensation under the offer) that is accepted, the aggrieved person cannot assert, continue or enforce an action for defamation against the publisher in relation to the matter in question even if the offer was limited to any particular defamatory imputations.
- (2) A court may (but need not):
 - (a) order the publisher to pay the aggrieved person the expenses reasonably incurred by the aggrieved person as a result of accepting the offer, and
 - (b) order any costs incurred by the aggrieved person that form part of those expenses to be assessed on an indemnity basis.
- (3) The powers conferred on a court by subsection (2) are exercisable:

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Part 3 Resolution of civil disputes without litigation

- (a) if the aggrieved person has brought proceedings against the publisher in any court for defamation in relation to the matter in question, by that court in those proceedings, and
- (b) except as provided in paragraph (a), by the Supreme Court.

Jurisdictional note. This subsection may need refinement in those jurisdictions in which only one court has jurisdiction to determine defamation matters.

18 Effect of failure to accept reasonable offer to make amends

- (1) If an offer to make amends is made in relation to the matter in question but is not accepted, it is a defence to an action for defamation against the publisher in relation to the matter if:
 - (a) the publisher made the offer as soon as reasonably practicable after the publisher was given a concerns notice in respect of the matter (and, in any event, within the applicable period for an offer to make amends), and
 - (b) the publisher was ready and willing, on acceptance of the offer by the aggrieved person, to carry out the terms of the offer, and
 - (c) in all the circumstances the offer was reasonable.
- (2) In determining whether an offer to make amends is reasonable, a court:
 - (a) must have regard to any correction or apology published before any trial arising out of the matter in question, including the extent to which the correction or apology is brought to the attention of the audience of the matter in question taking into account:
 - (i) the prominence given to the correction or apology as published in comparison to the prominence given to the matter in question as published, and
 - (ii) the period that elapses between publication of the matter in question and publication of the correction or apology, and
 - (b) may have regard to:
 - (i) whether the aggrieved person refused to accept an offer that was limited to any particular defamatory imputations because the aggrieved person did not agree with the publisher about the imputations that the matter in question carried, and
 - (ii) any other matter that the court considers relevant.
- (3) Despite section 22(2), the judicial officer (and not the jury) in defamation proceedings tried by jury is to determine whether a defence under this section is established.

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction that provides for jury trials for defamation proceedings is to enact the above subsection.

19 Inadmissibility of evidence of certain statements and admissions

- (1) Evidence of any statement or admission made in connection with the making or acceptance of an offer to make amends is not admissible as evidence in any legal proceedings (whether criminal or civil).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the admission of evidence in any legal proceedings in order to determine:
 - (a) any issue arising under, or relating to the application of, a provision of this Division, or
 - (b) costs in defamation proceedings.

Division 2 Apologies

20 Effect of apology on liability for defamation

- (1) An apology made by or on behalf of a person in connection with any defamatory matter alleged to have been published by the person:
 - (a) does not constitute an express or implied admission of fault or liability by the person in connection with that matter, and
 - (b) is not relevant to the determination of fault or liability in connection with that matter.
- (2) Evidence of an apology made by or on behalf of a person in connection with any defamatory matter alleged to have been published by the person is not admissible in any civil proceedings as evidence of the fault or liability of the person in connection with that matter.
- (3) Nothing in this section limits the operation of section 38.

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to enact this provision in its version of the model provisions. It may be necessary for some jurisdictions to make consequential amendments to any provision along these lines that is currently in their law.

Part 4 Litigation of civil disputes

Division 1 General

21 Election for defamation proceedings to be tried by jury

- (1) Unless the court orders otherwise, a plaintiff or defendant in defamation proceedings may elect for the proceedings to be tried by jury.
- (1A) Without limiting subsection (1), a court may order that defamation proceedings are not to be tried by jury if:
 - (a) the trial requires a prolonged examination of records, or
 - (b) the trial involves any technical, scientific or other issue that cannot be conveniently considered and resolved by a jury.
- (2) An election must be:
 - (a) made at the time and in the manner prescribed by the rules of court for the court in which the proceedings are to be tried, and
 - (b) accompanied by the fee (if any) prescribed by the regulations for jury trials in that court.
- (3) An election may be revoked only:
 - (a) with the consent of all the parties to the proceedings, or
 - (b) if all the parties do not consent, with the leave of the court.
- (4) The court may, on the application of a party to the proceedings, grant leave for the purposes of subsection (3)(b) only if satisfied it is in the interests of justice for the election to be revoked.

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction that wishes to have jury trials for defamation proceedings is to provide for a right of election in the above terms. Subsection (2) may need refinement in certain jurisdictions to fit in with the civil procedure legislation of the jurisdiction.

Jurisdictions that permit a magistrate's court to deal with defamation proceedings may need to make provision to ensure that juries are not required in proceedings before such courts.

22 Roles of judicial officers and juries in defamation proceedings

- (1) This section applies to defamation proceedings that are tried by jury.
- (2) The jury is to determine whether the defendant has published defamatory matter about the plaintiff and, if so, whether any defence raised by the defendant has been established.
- (3) If the jury finds that the defendant has published defamatory matter about the plaintiff and that no defence has been established, the judicial officer and not the jury is to determine the amount of damages (if any) that should be awarded to the plaintiff and all unresolved issues of fact and law relating to the determination of that amount.
- (4) If the proceedings relate to more than one cause of action for defamation, the jury must give a single verdict in relation to all causes of action on which the plaintiff relies unless the judicial officer orders otherwise.
- (5) Nothing in this section:
 - (a) affects any law or practice relating to special verdicts, or
 - (b) requires or permits a jury to determine any issue that, at general law, is an issue to be determined by the judicial officer, or
 - (c) requires or permits a jury to determine any issue that another provision of this Act requires a judicial officer to determine.

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction that provides for jury trials for defamation proceedings is to enact the above provision dealing with the role of juries.

23 Leave required for multiple proceedings in relation to publication of same defamatory matter

- (1) This section applies to a person who has brought defamation proceedings for damages, whether in this jurisdiction or elsewhere, against a person (a previous defendant) in relation to the publication of a matter.
- (2) The person may not bring further defamation proceedings for damages against a previous defendant or an associate of a previous defendant in relation to the same or any other publication of the same or like matter, except with the leave of the court in which the further proceedings are to be brought.
- (3) A person is an associate of a previous defendant if, at the time of the publication to which the previous defamation proceedings related, the person was:
 - (a) an employee of the defendant, or
 - (b) a person publishing matter as a contractor of the defendant, or
 - (c) an associated entity of the defendant (or an employee or contractor of the associated entity).

23A Orders for preliminary discovery about posters of digital matter

- (1) This section applies if the court procedure law for a court allows a person seeking to bring defamation proceedings for the publication of digital matter to obtain an order for, or in the nature of, preliminary discovery for either or both of the following purposes:
 - (a) to obtain information to assist in identifying the posters of the matter,
 - (b) to obtain information to assist in locating physical or digital addresses for the posters of the matter to allow concerns notices to be given to them or defamation proceedings against them to be commenced.
- (2) Despite anything to the contrary in the court procedure law for a court, the court must take the following matters into account before making an order mentioned in subsection (1):
 - (a) the objects of this Act,
 - (b) privacy, safety or other public interest considerations that may arise if the order is made.

Example for paragraph (b). Evidence suggesting the poster of digital matter is in fear of domestic violence from the person seeking an order to obtain the poster's address.
- (3) This section does not limit the matters the court may take into account before making an order mentioned in subsection (1).
- (4) In this section:
court procedure law for a court means:
 - (a) rules of court for the court, or
 - (b) an Act or other legislation that regulates the practice or procedure of the court, or
 - (c) the general law concerning the inherent or implied jurisdiction or powers of the court.

Division 2 Defences

24 Scope of defences under general law and other law not limited

- (1) A defence under this Division is additional to any other defence or exclusion of liability available to the defendant apart from this Act (including under the general law) and does not of itself vitiate, limit or abrogate any other defence or exclusion of liability.
- (2) If a defence under this Division to the publication of defamatory matter may be defeated by proof that the publication was actuated by malice, the general law applies in defamation proceedings in which the defence is raised to determine whether a particular publication of matter was actuated by malice.

25 Defence of justification

It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that the defamatory imputations carried by the matter of which the plaintiff complains are substantially true.

26 Defence of contextual truth

- (1) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that:
 - (a) the matter carried one or more imputations that are substantially true (contextual imputations), and
 - (b) any defamatory imputations of which the plaintiff complains that are not contextual imputations and are also carried by the matter do not further harm the reputation of the plaintiff because of the substantial truth of the contextual imputations.
- (2) The contextual imputations on which the defendant may rely to establish the defence include imputations of which the plaintiff complains.

27 Defence of absolute privilege

- (1) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that it was published on an occasion of absolute privilege.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), matter is published on an occasion of absolute privilege if:
 - (a) the matter is published in the course of the proceedings of a parliamentary body, including (but not limited to):
 - (i) the publication of a document by order, or under the authority, of the body, and
 - (ii) the publication of the debates and proceedings of the body by or under the authority of the body or any law, and
 - (iii) the publication of matter while giving evidence before the body, and
 - (iv) the publication of matter while presenting or submitting a document to the body, or
 - (b) the matter is published in the course of the proceedings of an Australian court or Australian tribunal, including (but not limited to):
 - (i) the publication of matter in any document filed or lodged with, or otherwise submitted to, the court or tribunal (including any originating process), and
 - (ii) the publication of matter while giving evidence before the court or tribunal, and

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Part 4 Litigation of civil disputes

- (iii) the publication of matter in any judgment, order or other determination of the court or tribunal, or
- (b1) the matter is published to a person who, at the time of the publication, is an official of a police force or service of an Australian jurisdiction and it is published to the official while the official is acting in an official capacity, or
- (c) the matter is published on an occasion that, if published in another Australian jurisdiction, would be an occasion of absolute privilege in that jurisdiction under a provision of a law of the jurisdiction corresponding to this section, or
- (d) the matter is published by a person or body in any circumstances specified in Schedule 1.

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to specify in Schedule 1 any other publications within its jurisdiction that should have the benefit of absolute privilege, but which do not fall within the general terms of this section.

- (3) In this section:
 - official of a police force or service of an Australian jurisdiction means:
 - (a) an officer, employee or member of staff of the police force or service, or
 - (b) another person engaged to act for or on behalf of the police force or service.

28 Defence for publication of public documents

- (1) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that the matter was contained in:
 - (a) a public document or a fair copy of a public document, or
 - (b) a fair summary of, or a fair extract from, a public document.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if a report or other document under the law of a country would be a public document except for non-compliance with a provision of that law about:
 - (a) the formal requirements for the content or layout of the report or document, or
 - (b) the time within which the report or document is prepared, or presented, submitted, tabled or laid to or before a person or body,the report or document is a public document despite that non-compliance.
- (3) A defence established under subsection (1) is defeated if, and only if, the plaintiff proves that the defamatory matter was not published honestly for the information of the public or the advancement of education.
- (4) In this section, public document means:
 - (a) any report or paper published by a parliamentary body, or a record of votes, debates or other proceedings relating to a parliamentary body published by or under the authority of the body or any law, or
 - (b) any judgment, order or other determination of a court or arbitral tribunal of any country in civil proceedings and including:
 - (i) any record of the court or tribunal relating to the judgment, order or determination or to its enforcement or satisfaction, and
 - (ii) any report of the court or tribunal about its judgment, order or determination and the reasons for its judgment, order or determination, or
 - (c) any report or other document that under the law of any country:
 - (i) is authorised to be published, or
 - (ii) is required to be presented or submitted to, tabled in, or laid before, a parliamentary body, or

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

- (d) any document issued by the government (including a local government) of a country, or by an officer, employee or agency of the government, for the information of the public, or
- (e) any record or other document open to inspection by the public that is kept:
 - (i) by an Australian jurisdiction, or
 - (ii) by a statutory authority of an Australian jurisdiction, or
 - (iii) by an Australian court, or
 - (iv) under legislation of an Australian jurisdiction, or
- (f) any other document issued, kept or published by a person, body or organisation of another Australian jurisdiction that is treated in that jurisdiction as a public document under a provision of a law of the jurisdiction corresponding to this section, or
- (g) any document of a kind specified in Schedule 2.

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to specify in Schedule 2 any other document produced in its jurisdiction that should be treated as a public document, but which does not fall within the general terms of this section.

29 Defences of fair report of proceedings of public concern

- (1) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that the matter was, or was contained in, a fair report of any proceedings of public concern.
- (2) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that:
 - (a) the matter was, or was contained in, an earlier published report of proceedings of public concern, and
 - (b) the matter was, or was contained in, a fair copy of, a fair summary of, or a fair extract from, the earlier published report, and
 - (c) the defendant had no knowledge that would reasonably make the defendant aware that the earlier published report was not fair.
- (3) A defence established under subsection (1) or (2) is defeated if, and only if, the plaintiff proves that the defamatory matter was not published honestly for the information of the public or the advancement of education.
- (4) In this section, proceedings of public concern means:
 - (a) any proceedings in public of a parliamentary body, or
 - (b) any proceedings in public of an international organisation of any countries or of the governments of any countries, or
 - (c) any proceedings in public of an international conference at which the governments of any countries are represented, or
 - (d) any proceedings in public of:
 - (i) the International Court of Justice, or any other judicial or arbitral tribunal, for the decision of any matter in dispute between nations, or
 - (ii) any other international judicial or arbitral tribunal, or
 - (e) any proceedings in public of a court or arbitral tribunal of any country, or
 - (f) any proceedings in public of an inquiry held under the law of any country or under the authority of the government of any country, or
 - (g) any proceedings in public of a local government body of any Australian jurisdiction, or
 - (h) proceedings of a learned society, or of a committee or governing body of the society, under its relevant objects, but only to the extent that the proceedings relate to a decision or adjudication made in Australia about:

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Part 4 Litigation of civil disputes

- (i) a member or members of the society, or
 - (ii) a person subject by contract or otherwise by law to control by the society, or
 - (i) proceedings of a sport or recreation association, or of a committee or governing body of the association, under its relevant objects, but only to the extent that the proceedings relate to a decision or adjudication made in Australia about:
 - (i) a member or members of the association, or
 - (ii) a person subject by contract or otherwise by law to control by the association, or
 - (j) proceedings of a trade association, or of a committee or governing body of the association, under its relevant objects, but only to the extent that the proceedings relate to a decision or adjudication made in Australia about:
 - (i) a member or members of the association, or
 - (ii) a person subject by contract or otherwise by law to control by the association, or
 - (k) any proceedings of a public meeting (with or without restriction on the people attending) of shareholders of a public company under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth held anywhere in Australia, or
 - (l) any proceedings of a public meeting (with or without restriction on the people attending) held anywhere in Australia if the proceedings relate to a matter of public interest, including the advocacy or candidature of a person for public office, or
 - (m) any proceedings of an ombudsman of any country if the proceedings relate to a report of the ombudsman, or
 - (n) any proceedings in public of a law reform body of any country, or
 - (o) any other proceedings conducted by, or proceedings of, a person, body or organisation of another Australian jurisdiction that are treated in that jurisdiction as proceedings of public concern under a provision of a law of the jurisdiction corresponding to this section, or
 - (p) any proceedings of a kind specified in Schedule 3.
Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to specify in Schedule 3 any other proceedings within its jurisdiction that should be treated as proceedings of public concern, but which do not fall within the general terms of this section.
- (5) In this section:
- law reform body of a country means a body (however described and whether or not permanent or full-time) established by law to conduct inquiries into, and to make recommendations on, reforming the laws of that country.
- learned society means a body, wherever formed:
- (a) the objects of which include the advancement of any art, science or religion or the advancement of learning in any field, and
 - (b) authorised by its constitution:
 - (i) to exercise control over, or adjudicate on, matters connected with those objects, and
 - (ii) to make findings or decisions having effect, by law or custom, in any part of Australia.
- ombudsman of a country means a person (however described and whether or not permanent or full-time) authorised by law to investigate complaints about the actions or other conduct of any public officials or public bodies of that country.

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Part 4 Litigation of civil disputes

Jurisdictional note. Some jurisdictions may wish to also wish to include such bodies in Schedule 1 in order to confer absolute privilege on their proceedings as well.

relevant objects of a learned society, sport or recreation association or trade association means:

- (a) in relation to a learned society—objects of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of learned society in this subsection, or
- (b) in relation to a sport or recreation association—objects of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of sport or recreation association in this subsection, or
- (c) in relation to a trade association—objects of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of trade association in this subsection.

sport or recreation association means a body, wherever formed:

- (a) the objects of which include the promotion of any game, sport, or pastime to the playing of which or exercise of which the public is admitted as spectators or otherwise and the promotion or protection of the interests of people connected with the game, sport, or pastime, and
- (b) authorised by its constitution:
 - (i) to exercise control over, or adjudicate on, matters connected with the game, sport, or pastime, and
 - (ii) to make findings or decisions having effect, by law or custom, in any part of Australia.

trade association means a body, wherever formed:

- (a) the objects of which include the promotion of any calling, that is to say, a trade, business, industry or profession and the promotion or protection of the interests of people engaged in any calling, and
- (b) authorised by its constitution:
 - (i) to exercise control over, or adjudicate on, matters connected with a calling or the conduct of people engaged in the calling, and
 - (ii) to make findings or decisions having effect, by law or custom, in any part of Australia.

29A Defence of publication of matter of public interest

- (1) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that:
 - (a) the matter concerns an issue of public interest, and
 - (b) the defendant reasonably believed that the publication of the matter was in the public interest.
- (2) In determining whether the defence is established, a court must take into account all of the circumstances of the case.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), the court may take into account the following factors to the extent the court considers them applicable in the circumstances:
 - (a) the seriousness of any defamatory imputation carried by the matter published,
 - (b) the extent to which the matter published distinguishes between suspicions, allegations and proven facts,
 - (c) the extent to which the matter published relates to the performance of the public functions or activities of the person,
 - (d) whether it was in the public interest in the circumstances for the matter to be published expeditiously,

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Part 4 Litigation of civil disputes

- (e) the sources of the information in the matter published, including the integrity of the sources,
 - (f) if a source of the information in the matter published is a person whose identity is being kept confidential, whether there is good reason for the person's identity to be kept confidential (including, for example, to comply with an applicable professional code or standard),
 - (g) whether the matter published contained the substance of the person's side of the story and, if not, whether a reasonable attempt was made by the defendant to obtain and publish a response from the person,
 - (h) any other steps taken to verify the information in the matter published,
 - (i) the importance of freedom of expression in the discussion of issues of public interest.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not:
- (a) require each factor referred to in the subsection to be taken into account, or
 - (b) limit the matters that the court may take into account.
- (5) Without affecting the application of section 22 to other defences, the jury (and not the judicial officer) in defamation proceedings tried by jury is to determine whether a defence under this section is established.
- Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction that provides for jury trials for defamation proceedings is to enact the above subsection.

30 Defence of qualified privilege for provision of certain information

- (1) There is a defence of qualified privilege for the publication of defamatory matter to a person (the recipient) if the defendant proves that:
- (a) the recipient has an interest or apparent interest in having information on some subject, and
 - (b) the matter is published to the recipient in the course of giving to the recipient information on that subject, and
 - (c) the conduct of the defendant in publishing that matter is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a recipient has an apparent interest in having information on some subject if, and only if, at the time of the publication in question, the defendant believes on reasonable grounds that the recipient has that interest.
- (3) In determining for the purposes of subsection (1) whether the conduct of the defendant in publishing matter about a person is reasonable in the circumstances, a court may take into account the following factors to the extent the court considers them applicable in the circumstances:
- (a) the seriousness of any defamatory imputation carried by the matter published,
 - (b) the extent to which the matter published distinguishes between suspicions, allegations and proven facts,
 - (c) the nature of the business environment in which the defendant operates,
 - (d) whether it was appropriate in the circumstances for the matter to be published expeditiously
 - (e) any other steps taken to verify the information in the matter published.
- (3A) Subsection (3) does not:
- (a) require each factor referred to in the subsection to be taken into account, or
 - (b) limit the matters that the court may take into account.

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

- (3B) It is not necessary to prove that the matter published concerned an issue of public interest to establish the defence of qualified privilege under subsection (1).
- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, a defence of qualified privilege under subsection (1) is defeated if the plaintiff proves that the publication of the defamatory matter was actuated by malice.
- (5) However, a defence of qualified privilege under subsection (1) is not defeated merely because the defamatory matter was published for reward.
- (6) Without affecting the application of section 22 to other defences, the jury (and not the judicial officer) in defamation proceedings tried by jury is to determine whether a defence under this section is established.
Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction that provides for jury trials for defamation proceedings is to enact the above subsection.

30A Defence of scientific or academic peer review

- (1) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that:
 - (a) the matter was published in a scientific or academic journal (whether published in electronic form or otherwise), and
 - (b) the matter relates to a scientific or academic issue, and
 - (c) an independent review of the matter's scientific or academic merit was carried out before the matter was published in the journal by:
 - (i) the editor of the journal if the editor has expertise in the scientific or academic issue concerned, or
 - (ii) one or more persons with expertise in the scientific or academic issue concerned.
- (2) If there is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter in a scientific or academic journal because of subsection (1), there is also a defence to the publication of any assessment of the matter in the same journal if the defendant proves that:
 - (a) the assessment was written by one or more of the persons who carried out the independent review of the matter, and
 - (b) the assessment was written in the course of that review.
- (3) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that the matter was contained in a fair summary of, or fair extract from, a matter or assessment for which there is a defence because of subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) If a journal has more than one editor, a reference in this section to the editor of the journal is to be read as a reference to the editor or editors who were responsible for deciding to publish the matter concerned.
- (5) A defence established under this section is defeated if, and only if, the plaintiff proves that the defamatory matter or assessment was not published honestly for the information of the public or the advancement of education.

31 Defences of honest opinion

- (1) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that:
 - (a) the matter was an expression of opinion of the defendant rather than a statement of fact, and
 - (b) the opinion related to a matter of public interest, and
 - (c) the opinion is based on proper material.
- (2) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that:

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Part 4 Litigation of civil disputes

- (a) the matter was an expression of opinion of an employee or agent of the defendant rather than a statement of fact, and
 - (b) the opinion related to a matter of public interest, and
 - (c) the opinion is based on proper material.
- (3) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that:
- (a) the matter was an expression of opinion of a person (the commentator), other than the defendant or an employee or agent of the defendant, rather than a statement of fact, and
 - (b) the opinion related to a matter of public interest, and
 - (c) the opinion is based on proper material.
- (4) A defence established under this section is defeated if, and only if, the plaintiff proves that:
- (a) in the case of a defence under subsection (1)—the opinion was not honestly held by the defendant at the time the defamatory matter was published, or
 - (b) in the case of a defence under subsection (2)—the defendant did not believe that the opinion was honestly held by the employee or agent at the time the defamatory matter was published, or
 - (c) in the case of a defence under subsection (3)—the defendant had reasonable grounds to believe that the opinion was not honestly held by the commentator at the time the defamatory matter was published.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, an opinion is based on proper material if:
- (a) the material on which it is based is:
 - (i) set out in specific or general terms in the published matter, or
 - (ii) notorious, or
 - (iii) accessible from a reference, link or other access point included in the matter (for example, a hyperlink on a webpage), or
 - (iv) otherwise apparent from the context in which the matter is published, and
 - (b) the material:
 - (i) is substantially true, or
 - (ii) was published on an occasion of absolute or qualified privilege (whether under this Act or at general law), or
 - (iii) was published on an occasion that attracted the protection of a defence under this section or section 28 or 29.
- (6) An opinion does not cease to be based on proper material only because some of the material on which it is based is not proper material if the opinion might reasonably be based on such of the material as is proper material.

31A Defence for publications involving digital intermediaries

- (1) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory digital matter if the defendant proves:
- (a) the defendant was a digital intermediary in relation to the publication, and
 - (b) the defendant had, at the time of the publication, an accessible complaints mechanism for the plaintiff to use, and
 - (c) if the plaintiff gave the defendant a written complaint under this section about the publication—reasonable access prevention steps, if steps were available, were taken in relation to the publication, whether before the complaint was given or within 7 days after the complaint was given.

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Note.

- 1 The defendant is not required to prove paragraph (c) to establish the defence if the plaintiff has not given the defendant a complaint about the publication under this section. Subsection (3) sets out requirements for giving complaints.
 - 2 Subsection (6) defines accessible complaints mechanism.
- (2) For subsection (1)(c), reasonable access prevention steps were taken in relation to the publication of digital matter if:
 - (a) for access prevention steps taken by the defendant—the steps taken were reasonable for the defendant to take in the circumstances, or
 - (b) for access prevention steps taken by another person—it was reasonable for the defendant not to take steps because of the steps already taken.
 - (3) A written complaint is given under this section about the publication of defamatory digital matter if:
 - (a) the complaint contained information sufficient to enable a reasonable person in the defendant's circumstances to be made aware of the following:
 - (i) the name of the plaintiff,
 - (ii) the matter and where it could be located,
 - (iii) that the plaintiff considered the matter to be defamatory, and
 - (b) the complaint was given using an accessible complaints mechanism for the plaintiff to use or given to the defendant in another way permitted by section 44.
 - (4) A defence under this section is defeated only if the plaintiff proves the defendant was actuated by malice in establishing or providing the online service by means of which the digital matter was published.
 - (5) A defendant who would otherwise be a digital intermediary in relation to the publication of digital matter does not cease to be a digital intermediary for this section merely because the defendant took steps to detect or identify, or steps to remove, block, disable or otherwise prevent access by persons to, the following:
 - (a) defamatory or other unlawful content published, or sought to be published, by a person using the online service provided by the defendant,
 - (b) other content published, or sought to be published, by a person using the online service provided by the defendant that was incompatible with the terms or conditions under which the service was provided.

Note. This subsection allows a defendant to rely on the defence despite the definition of digital intermediary in section 4 excluding authors, originators or posters of digital matter if the defendant's editorial or moderating role over content published using the online service was limited to the steps mentioned in the subsection.

- (6) In this section:
accessible complaints mechanism for a plaintiff to use means an easily accessible address, location or other mechanism available for the plaintiff to use to complain to the defendant about the publication of the digital matter concerned.

Examples of an accessible complaints mechanism:

- 1 An email address or direct messaging address to which a complaint may be sent.
- 2 A webpage, or a part of a webpage, enabling details about a complaint to be uploaded or inputted.

32 Defence of innocent dissemination

- (1) It is a defence to the publication of defamatory matter if the defendant proves that:
 - (a) the defendant published the matter merely in the capacity, or as an employee or agent, of a subordinate distributor, and

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Part 4 Litigation of civil disputes

- (b) the defendant neither knew, nor ought reasonably to have known, that the matter was defamatory, and
 - (c) the defendant's lack of knowledge was not due to any negligence on the part of the defendant.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person is a subordinate distributor of defamatory matter if the person:
 - (a) was not the first or primary distributor of the matter, and
 - (b) was not the author or originator of the matter, and
 - (c) did not have any capacity to exercise editorial control over the content of the matter (or over the publication of the matter) before it was first published.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2)(a), a person is not the first or primary distributor of matter merely because the person was involved in the publication of the matter in the capacity of:
 - (a) a bookseller, newsagent or news-vendor, or
 - (b) a librarian, or
 - (c) a wholesaler or retailer of the matter, or
 - (d) a provider of postal or similar services by means of which the matter is published, or
 - (e) a broadcaster of a live programme (whether on television, radio or otherwise) containing the matter in circumstances in which the broadcaster has no effective control over the person who makes the statements that comprise the matter, or
 - (f) a provider of services consisting of:
 - (i) the processing, copying, distributing or selling of any electronic medium in or on which the matter is recorded, or
 - (ii) the operation of, or the provision of any equipment, system or service, by means of which the matter is retrieved, copied, distributed or made available in electronic form, or
 - (g) an operator of, or a provider of access to, a communications system by means of which the matter is transmitted, or made available, by another person over whom the operator or provider has no effective control, or
 - (h) a person who, on the instructions or at the direction of another person, prints or produces, reprints or reproduces or distributes the matter for or on behalf of that other person.

33 [Repealed]

Division 3 Remedies

34 Damages to bear rational relationship to harm

In determining the amount of damages to be awarded in any defamation proceedings, the court is to ensure that there is an appropriate and rational relationship between the harm sustained by the plaintiff and the amount of damages awarded.

35 Damages for non-economic loss limited

- (1) The maximum amount of damages for non-economic loss that may be awarded in defamation proceedings is $250,000 or any other amount adjusted in accordance with this section from time to time (the maximum damages amount) that is applicable at the time damages are awarded.

- (2) The maximum damages amount is to be awarded only in a most serious case.
- (2A) Subsection (1) does not limit the court's power to award aggravated damages if an award of aggravated damages is warranted in the circumstances.
- (2B) An award of aggravated damages is to be made separately to any award of damages for non-economic loss to which subsection (1) applies.
- (3) The Minister is, on or before 1 July 2006 and on or before 1 July in each succeeding year, to declare, by order published in the Gazette, the amount that is to apply, as from the date specified in the order, for the purposes of subsection (1).
Jurisdictional note. A date of 1 July 2006 has been selected to provide an ample lead-in time for each jurisdiction to enact the model provisions. The above subsection will need to be modified for those jurisdictions, such as the Australian Capital Territory, who no longer publish a Gazette.
- (4) The amount declared is to be the amount applicable under subsection (1) (or that amount as last adjusted under this section) adjusted by the percentage change in the amount estimated by the Australian Statistician of the average weekly total earnings of full-time adults in Australia over the 4 quarters preceding the date of the declaration for which those estimates are, at that date, available.
- (5) An amount declared for the time being under this section applies to the exclusion of the amount of $250,000 or an amount previously adjusted under this section.
- (6) If the Australian Statistician fails or ceases to estimate the amount referred to in subsection (4), the amount declared is to be determined in accordance with the regulations.
- (7) In adjusting an amount to be declared for the purposes of subsection (1), the amount determined in accordance with subsection (4) is to be rounded to the nearest $500.
- (8) A declaration made or published in the Gazette after 1 July in a year and specifying a date that is before the date it is made or published as the date from which the amount declared by the order is to apply has effect as from that specified date.

36 State of mind of defendant generally not relevant to awarding damages

In awarding damages for defamation, the court is to disregard the malice or other state of mind of the defendant at the time of the publication of the defamatory matter to which the proceedings relate or at any other time except to the extent that the malice or other state of mind affects the harm sustained by the plaintiff.

37 Exemplary or punitive damages cannot be awarded

A plaintiff cannot be awarded exemplary or punitive damages for defamation.

38 Factors in mitigation of damages

- (1) Evidence is admissible on behalf of the defendant, in mitigation of damages for the publication of defamatory matter, that:
 - (a) the defendant has made an apology to the plaintiff about the publication of the defamatory matter, or
 - (b) the defendant has published a correction of the defamatory matter, or
 - (c) the plaintiff has already recovered damages for defamation in relation to any other publication of matter having the same meaning or effect as the defamatory matter, or

- (d) the plaintiff has brought proceedings for damages for defamation in relation to any other publication of matter having the same meaning or effect as the defamatory matter, or
 - (e) the plaintiff has received or agreed to receive compensation for defamation in relation to any other publication of matter having the same meaning or effect as the defamatory matter.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) operates to limit the matters that can be taken into account by a court in mitigation of damages.

39 Damages for multiple causes of action may be assessed as single sum

If the court in defamation proceedings finds for the plaintiff as to more than one cause of action, the judicial officer may assess damages in a single sum.

39A Orders against non-party digital intermediaries concerning defamatory digital matter

- (1) This section applies in relation to defamation proceedings for the publication of digital matter if:
- (a) the plaintiff has obtained judgment for defamation against the defendant in the proceedings, or
 - (b) a court has granted a temporary injunction or makes another temporary order preventing the defendant from continuing to publish, or from republishing, the matter pending the determination of the proceedings, or
 - (c) a court has granted a final injunction or makes another final order preventing the defendant from continuing to publish, or from republishing, the matter.
- (2) In defamation proceedings to which this section applies, the court may order a digital intermediary who is not a party to the proceedings (a non-party digital intermediary) to take access prevention steps or other steps the court considers necessary in the circumstances:
- (a) to prevent or limit the continued publication or republication of the matter, or
 - (b) to comply with, or otherwise give effect to, the judgment, injunction or other order mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), an order under this section may:
- (a) require 1 or more steps to be taken, or
 - (b) require a step to be taken in relation to all, or only some, of the users of an online service.
- (4) The court may not make an order under this section against a non-party digital intermediary unless the intermediary has been given an opportunity to be heard about whether it is appropriate for the order to be made.
- (5) Despite subsection (4), the court may make a temporary order without giving the non-party digital intermediary an opportunity to be heard about whether it is appropriate to make the order if the court considers it necessary in the circumstances for the order to be made expeditiously pending a subsequent hearing concerning whether a further temporary order or a final order should be made.
- (6) An order may be made under this section even if the non-party digital intermediary is not, or may not be, liable for defamation, including because of a defence, for the publication of the digital matter to which the defamation proceedings relate.
- (7) This section does not limit other powers the court may have apart from this section to grant injunctions or make other orders requiring a non-party digital intermediary to take access prevention steps or other steps.

Division 4 Costs

40 Costs in defamation proceedings

- (1) In awarding costs in defamation proceedings, the court may have regard to:
 - (a) the way in which the parties to the proceedings conducted their cases (including any misuse of a party's superior financial position to hinder the early resolution of the proceedings), and
 - (b) any other matters that the court considers relevant.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a court must (unless the interests of justice require otherwise):
 - (a) if defamation proceedings are successfully brought by a plaintiff and costs in the proceedings are to be awarded to the plaintiff—order costs of and incidental to the proceedings to be assessed on an indemnity basis if the court is satisfied that the defendant unreasonably failed to make a settlement offer or agree to a settlement offer proposed by the plaintiff, or
 - (b) if defamation proceedings are unsuccessfully brought by a plaintiff and costs in the proceedings are to be awarded to the defendant—order costs of and incidental to the proceedings to be assessed on an indemnity basis if the court is satisfied that the plaintiff unreasonably failed to accept a settlement offer made by the defendant.
- (3) In this section:

settlement offer means any offer to settle the proceedings made before the proceedings are determined, and includes an offer to make amends (whether made before or after the proceedings are commenced), that was a reasonable offer at the time it was made.

Part 5 Miscellaneous

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction may insert such local procedural provisions as it requires in this Part. For instance, provision might be made in this Part for matters such as regulation-making and rule-making powers.

41 Proof of publication

- (1) If a document appears to be printed or otherwise produced by means adapted for the production of numerous copies and there is in the document a statement to the effect that the document is printed, produced, published or distributed by or for a particular person, the statement is evidence in defamation proceedings that the document was so printed, produced, published or distributed.
- (2) Evidence that a number or part of a document appearing to be a periodical is printed, produced, published or distributed by or for a particular person is evidence in defamation proceedings that a document appearing to be another number or part of the periodical was so printed, produced, published or distributed.
- (3) In this section:
periodical includes any newspaper, review, magazine or other printed document of which numbers or parts are published periodically.

42 Proof of convictions for offences

- (1) If the question whether or not a person committed an offence is in question in defamation proceedings:
 - (a) proof that the person was convicted of the offence by an Australian court is conclusive evidence that the person committed the offence, and
 - (b) proof that the person was convicted of the offence by a court of any country (other than an Australian court) or a court martial of any country is evidence that the person committed the offence.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the contents of a document that is evidence of conviction of an offence, and the contents of an information, complaint, indictment, charge sheet or similar document on which a person is convicted of an offence, are admissible in evidence to identify the facts on which the conviction is based.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not affect the admissibility of other evidence to identify the facts on which the conviction is based.
- (4) In this section, conviction for an offence includes a finding of guilt but does not include:
 - (a) a conviction that has been set aside or quashed, or
 - (b) a conviction for an offence for which a person has received a pardon.

43 Incriminating answers, documents or things

- (1) A person who is required to answer a question, or to discover or produce a document or thing, in defamation proceedings is not excused from answering the question or discovering or producing the document or thing on the ground that the answer to the question or the discovery or production of the document or thing might tend to incriminate the person of an offence of criminal defamation.
- (2) However, any answer given to a question, or document or thing discovered or produced, by a natural person in compliance with the requirement is not admissible in evidence against the person in proceedings for criminal defamation.

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to consider whether it is necessary to extend this provision so that it applies to the incrimination of a person's spouse if the law of the jurisdiction provides for a person's spouse to be exposed to criminal liability.

Part 5 Miscellaneous

44 Giving of notices and other documents

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a notice or other document may be given to a person (or a notice or other document may be served on a person):
- (a) in the case of a natural person—by:
 - (i) delivering it to the person personally, or
 - (ii) sending it by post to the address specified by the person for the giving or service of documents or, if no such address is specified, the residential or business address of the person last known to the person giving or serving the document, or
 - (iii) sending it by facsimile transmission to the facsimile number of the person, or
 - (iv) sending it by email, messaging or other electronic communication to an electronic address or location indicated by the person for giving documents to, or serving documents on, the person, or
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate—by:
 - (i) leaving it with a person apparently of or above the age of 16 years at, or by sending it by post to, the head office, a registered office or a principal office of the body corporate or to an address specified by the body corporate for the giving or service of documents, or
 - (ii) sending it by facsimile transmission to the facsimile number of the body corporate, or
 - (iii) sending it by email, messaging or other electronic communication to an electronic address or location indicated by the body corporate for giving documents to, or serving documents on, the body corporate.

Examples for paragraphs (a)(iv) and (b)(iii):

- 1 An email address or direct messaging address set out on an internet-based social media forum for contacting the administrator of the forum about content on the forum.
 - 2 An email address or direct messaging address provided by the poster of digital matter on an internet-based social media forum for contacting the poster about the content of the matter.
 - 3 ..A form on a website provided by a digital intermediary enabling a user to contact the intermediary by filling in the form or uploading documents.
- (2) Nothing in this section affects the operation of any provision of a law or of the rules of a court authorising a document to be given or served on a person in any other manner.

Jurisdictional note. Some jurisdictions may need to include a provision along the lines of the above provision to facilitate the giving of concerns notices and further particulars notices under Part 3.

45 Regulations

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to insert a provision enabling the making of regulations for the purposes of the new Act.

46 Rules of court

Jurisdictional note. Some jurisdictions may need to insert a provision enabling the making of rules of court for the purposes of the new Act.

47 Repeal of existing legislation

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to insert a provision repealing its existing legislation relating to defamation.

48 Amendment of other Acts

Schedule 4 has effect.

Part 5 Miscellaneous

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to make provision for the amendment of existing legislation as a consequence of the enactment of the new legislation, including (in particular) provisions in relation to the limitation period for defamation.

Part 6 Savings and transitional provisions

Division 1 Model Defamation Provisions

49 Savings, transitional and other provisions for when Act originally enacted

- (1) This Act applies to the publication of defamatory matter after the commencement of this Act, unless subsection (2) provides otherwise.
- (2) The provisions of this Act (other than this section) do not apply to a cause of action for the publication of defamatory matter that accrues after the commencement of this Act (the post-commencement action) if:
 - (a) the post-commencement action is one of 2 or more causes of action in proceedings commenced by a plaintiff, and
 - (b) each cause of action in the proceedings accrues because of the publication of the same, or substantially the same, matter on separate occasions (whether by the same defendant or another defendant), and
 - (c) one or more of the other causes of action in the proceedings accrued before the commencement of this Act (a pre-commencement action), and
 - (d) the post-commencement action accrued no later than 12 months after the date on which the earliest pre-commencement action in the proceedings accrued.
- (3) The existing law of defamation continues to apply to the following causes of action in the same way as it would have applied to those causes of action had this Act not been enacted:
 - (a) any cause of action that accrued before the commencement of this Act,
 - (b) any post-commencement action to which the other provisions of this Act do not apply because of subsection (2).
- (4) In this section, the existing law of defamation means the law (including all relevant statutory provisions and principles and rules of the general law) that applied in this jurisdiction to the determination of civil liability for the publication of defamatory matter immediately before the commencement of this Act.

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to enact this transitional provision, whether in the body of the model provisions or in a savings and transitional Schedule. Additional transitional provisions may be needed, for instance, provisions updating references to any repealed law.

Division 2 Model Defamation Amendment Provisions 2020

50 Savings and transitional provisions for 2020 amendments

An amendment made to this Act by the Model Defamation Amendment Provisions 2020 applies only in relation to the publication of defamatory matter after the commencement of the amendment.

Jurisdictional note. This provision is to be inserted in the appropriate location by each jurisdiction with reference to the name of the amending Act enacted to give effect to the Model Defamation Amendment Provisions 2020.

Division 3 Model Defamation Amendment (Digital Intermediaries) Provisions 2023

Jurisdictional note. These provisions are to be inserted in the appropriate location by each jurisdiction with reference to the name of the amending Act enacted to give effect to the Model Defamation Amendment (Digital Intermediaries) Provisions 2023. Also, references to the 2023 amendments will need to be altered if the amending Act of a jurisdiction is enacted after 2023.

51 Definitions

In this Division:

2023 amendments means amendments made to this Act by the Model Defamation Amendment (Digital Intermediaries) Provisions 2023.

existing law, in relation to 2023 amendments about a subject, means the law that would have applied if the amendments had not been enacted.

post-commencement action, in relation to 2023 amendments about a subject, means a cause of action for the publication of defamatory matter accruing after the commencement of the amendments.

pre-commencement action, in relation to 2023 amendments about a subject, means a cause of action for the publication of defamatory matter accruing before the commencement of the amendments.

52 Digital intermediary amendments

- (1) This section applies to the 2023 amendments about (the digital intermediary amendments):
 - (a) exempting digital intermediaries from liability for defamation, or
 - (b) providing a defence for publications of defamatory digital matter involving digital intermediaries.
- (2) Except as provided by subsection (3)(b), the digital intermediary amendments apply to a post-commencement action.
- (3) The existing law continues to apply despite the digital intermediary amendments:
 - (a) to a pre-commencement action, and
 - (b) to a post-commencement action, but only if:
 - (i) the post-commencement action is 1 of 2 or more causes of action in proceedings commenced by a plaintiff, and
 - (ii) each cause of action in the proceedings accrues because of the publication of the same, or substantially the same, matter on separate occasions, whether by the same defendant or another defendant, and
 - (iii) 1 or more of the other causes of action in the proceedings are pre-commencement actions, and
 - (iv) the post-commencement action accrued no later than 12 months after the date on which the earliest pre-commencement action in the proceedings accrued.

53 Offer amendments

- (1) This section applies to the 2023 amendments about offers to make amends (the offer amendments).
- (2) The offer amendments apply to offers to make amends made after the commencement of the amendments regardless of whether the offers relate to publications occurring before or after the commencement.
- (3) The existing law continues to apply despite the offer amendments to offers to make amends made before the commencement of the amendments.

54 Preliminary discovery or non-party digital intermediary order amendments

- (1) This section applies to the 2023 amendments about courts making orders (the preliminary discovery or non-party digital intermediary order amendments):
 - (a) for, or in the nature of, preliminary discovery, or

- (b) to take steps:
 - (i) to prevent or limit the continued publication or republication of defamatory matter, or
 - (ii) to comply with, or otherwise give effect to, judgments, injunctions or other court orders.
- (2) Except as provided by subsection (3)(b), the preliminary discovery or non-party digital intermediary order amendments apply to the making of an order after the commencement of the amendments regardless of whether the proceedings in which they are made:
 - (a) involve a pre-commencement action or post-commencement action, or
 - (b) were commenced before or after the commencement of the amendments.
- (3) The existing law continues to apply despite the preliminary discovery or non-party digital intermediary order amendments:
 - (a) to an order made before the commencement of the amendments, or
 - (b) to the variation or revocation of an order made before the commencement of the amendments.

55 Document giving or service amendments

- (1) This section applies to the 2023 amendments about the ways in which notices or other documents for the purposes of this Act must or may be given to, or served on, individuals or bodies corporate (the document giving or service amendments).
- (2) The document giving or service amendments apply to the giving or service of notices or other documents after the commencement of the amendments regardless of whether the notices or other documents relate:
 - (a) to pre-commencement actions or post-commencement actions, or
 - (b) to proceedings commenced before or after the commencement of the amendments.
- (3) The existing law continues to apply despite the document giving or service amendments to the giving or service of notices or other documents before the commencement of the amendments.

Division 4 Model Defamation Amendment (Absolute Privilege) Provisions 2023

56 Absolute privilege amendments

- (1) This section applies to the amendments made to this Act by the Model Defamation Amendment (Absolute Privilege) Provisions 2023 about the defence of absolute privilege in its application to publications to officials of police forces or services of Australian jurisdictions (the absolute privilege amendments).
- (2) The absolute privilege amendments apply to a post-commencement action.
- (3) The existing law continues to apply despite the absolute privilege amendments to a pre-commencement action.
- (4) In this section:
 - existing law*, in relation to the absolute privilege amendments, means the law that would have applied if the amendments had not been enacted.
 - post-commencement action*, in relation to the absolute privilege amendments, means a cause of action for the publication of defamatory matter accruing after the commencement of the amendments.

4.1 Statute of limitations

Jurisdictional note. Provisions along the following lines should be inserted in the statute of limitations of each jurisdiction:

1 Proceedings generally to be commenced within 1 year

- (1) An action on a cause of action for defamation is not maintainable if brought after the end of a limitation period of 1 year running from the date of the publication of the matter complained of.
- (2) The 1-year limitation period referred to in subsection (1) is taken to have been extended as provided by subsection (3) if a concerns notice is given to the proposed defendant on a day (the notice day) within the period of 56 days before the limitation period expires.
- (3) The limitation period is extended for an additional period of 56 days minus any days remaining after the notice day until the 1-year limitation period expires.
Example. Assume a concerns notice is given 7 days before the limitation period expires. This means that there are 6 days left after the notice day before the period expires. Consequently, this subsection would operate to extend the limitation period by 56 minus 6 days, that is, 50 days.

- (4) In this section:

concerns notice has the same meaning as in the Defamation Act 2005.

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to insert the name of its defamation legislation in the definition.

date of publication, in relation to publication of matter in electronic form, means the day on which the matter was first uploaded for access or sent electronically to a recipient.

1A Single publication rule

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a person (the first publisher) publishes matter to the public that is alleged to be defamatory (the first publication), and
 - (b) the first publisher or an associate of the first publisher subsequently publishes (whether or not to the public) matter that is substantially the same.
- (2) Any cause of action for defamation against the first publisher or an associate of the first publisher in respect of the subsequent publication is to be treated as having accrued on the date of the first publication for the purposes of determining when:
 - (a) the limitation period applicable under section 1 begins, or
 - (b) the 3-year period referred to in section 1B(2) begins.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply in relation to the subsequent publication if the manner of that publication is materially different from the manner of the first publication.
- (4) In determining whether the manner of a subsequent publication is materially different from the manner of the first publication, the considerations to which the court may have regard include (but are not limited to):
 - (a) the level of prominence that a matter is given, and
 - (b) the extent of the subsequent publication.
- (5) This section does not limit the power of a court under section 1B to extend the limitation period applicable under section 1.

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Schedule 4 Amendment of other Acts

(6) In this section:

associate of a first publisher means:

- (a) an employee of the publisher, or
- (b) a person publishing matter as a contractor of the publisher, or
- (c) an associated entity (within the meaning of section 50AAA the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth) of the publisher (or an employee or contractor of the associated entity).

date of first publication, in relation to publication of matter in electronic form, means the day on which the matter was first uploaded for access or sent electronically to a recipient.

public includes a section of the public.

1B Extension of limitation period

- (1) A person claiming to have a cause of action for defamation may apply to the court for an order extending the limitation period applicable under section 1 for the cause of action.
- (2) The court may extend the limitation period to a period of up to 3 years running from the date of the alleged publication of the matter if the plaintiff satisfies the court that it is just and reasonable to allow an action to proceed.
- (3) In determining whether to extend the limitation period, the court is to have regard to all of the circumstances of the case and in particular to:
 - (a) the length of, and the reasons for, the plaintiff's delay, and
 - (b) if a reason for the delay was that some or all of the facts relevant to the cause of action became known to the plaintiff after the limitation period expired:
 - (i) the day on which the facts became known to the plaintiff, and
 - (ii) the extent to which the plaintiff acted promptly and reasonably once the plaintiff knew whether or not the facts might be capable of giving rise to an action, and
 - (c) the extent, having regard to the delay, to which relevant evidence is likely to be unavailable or less cogent than if the action had been brought within the limitation period.

1C Effect of limitation law concerning electronic publications on other laws

- (1) This section applies in respect of any requirement under section 1 or 1A for the date of publication of a matter in electronic form to be determined by reference to the day on which the matter was first uploaded for access or sent electronically to a recipient.
- (2) A requirement to which this section applies is relevant only for the purpose of determining when a limitation period begins and for no other purpose.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), a requirement to which this section applies is not relevant for:
 - (a) establishing whether there is a cause of action for defamation, or
 - (b) the choice of law to be applied for cause of action for defamation.

2 Application of section 1 as originally enacted

- (1) Section 1 applies to the publication of defamatory matter after the commencement of that section, unless subsection (2) provides otherwise.

Parliamentary Counsel's Committee

Model Defamation Provisions [NSW]
Schedule 4 Amendment of other Acts

- (2) The provisions of section 1 do not apply to a cause of action for the publication of defamatory matter that accrues after the commencement of that section (the post-commencement action) if:
 - (a) the post-commencement action is one of 2 or more causes of action in proceedings commenced by a plaintiff, and
 - (b) each cause of action in the proceedings accrues because of the publication of the same, or substantially the same, matter on separate occasions (whether by the same defendant or another defendant), and
 - (c) one or more of the other causes of action in the proceedings accrued before the commencement of section 1 (a pre-commencement action), and
 - (d) the post-commencement action accrued no later than 12 months after the date on which the earliest pre-commencement action in the proceedings accrued.
- (3) The existing limitation law continues to apply to the following causes of action in the same way as it would have applied to those causes of action had section 1 not been enacted:
 - (a) any cause of action that accrued before the commencement of section 1,
 - (b) any post-commencement action to which section 1 does not apply because of subsection (2).
- (4) In this section, the existing limitation law means the provisions of this Act that applied in relation to the limitation period for defamation actions immediately before the commencement of section 1.

3 Application of 2020 amendments

- (1) The amendment made to section 1 by the Model Defamation Amendment Provisions 2020 applies in relation to the publication of defamatory matter after the commencement of the amendment.
- (2) Section 1A (as inserted by the Model Defamation Amendment Provisions 2020) applies in relation to the publication of defamatory matter after the commencement of the section, subject to subsection (3).
- (3) Section 1A extends to a first publication before the commencement of the section, but only in respect of subsequent publications after the commencement.
- (4) Section 1B (as inserted by the Model Defamation Amendment Provisions 2020) applies in relation to the publication of defamatory matter after the commencement of the section.

Jurisdictional note. This provision is to be inserted in the appropriate location by each jurisdiction with references to the name of the amending Act enacted to give effect to the Model Defamation Amendment Provisions 2020.

4.2 Criminal defamation

Jurisdictional note. Provisions along the following lines may be inserted in the statute book of those jurisdictions who choose to re-enact their criminal defamation laws:

Part 1 Criminal defamation

1 Common law misdemeanour of criminal libel abolished

The common law misdemeanour of criminal libel is/remains* abolished.

Jurisdictional note. If the common law offence has previously been abolished in a jurisdiction, the jurisdiction may choose to enact a provision that states that the offence "remains" abolished.

2 Offence of criminal defamation

- (1) A person must not, without lawful excuse, publish matter defamatory of another living person (the victim):
- (a) knowing the matter to be false, and
 - (b) with intent to cause serious harm to the victim or any other person or being reckless as to whether such harm is caused.

Maximum penalty:

Jurisdictional note. Each jurisdiction is to specify a maximum penalty for the offence.

- (2) A defendant in proceedings for an offence under this section has a lawful excuse for the publication of defamatory matter about the victim if, and only if, the defendant would, having regard only to the circumstances happening before or at the time of the publication, have had a defence for the publication if the victim had brought civil proceedings for defamation against the defendant.
- (3) The prosecution bears the onus of negating the existence of a lawful excuse if, and only if, evidence directed to establishing the excuse is first adduced by or on behalf of the defendant.
- (4) On a trial before a jury for an offence under this section:
- (a) the question of whether the matter complained of is capable of bearing a defamatory meaning is a question for determination by the judicial officer presiding, and
 - (b) the question of whether the matter complained of does bear a defamatory meaning is a question for the jury, and
 - (c) the jury may give a general verdict of guilty or not guilty on the issues as a whole.

Jurisdictional note. Some jurisdictions may need to either omit or modify this provision if the offence may only be tried summarily in the jurisdiction. Also, some jurisdictions may need to say expressly whether the offence is triable summarily or on indictment.

- (5) Proceedings in a court for an offence under this section cannot be instituted without the written consent of the [Director of Public Prosecutions/Attorney General]*.

Jurisdictional note. The Attorney General should be substituted for those jurisdictions that do not have a Director of Public Prosecutions.

- (6) In those proceedings, a consent purporting to have been signed by the [Director of Public Prosecutions/Attorney General]* is, without proof of the signature, evidence of that consent.
- (7) In this section, publish and defamatory have the meanings that they have in the law of tort (as modified by the Defamation Act 2005) relating to defamation.

3 Proceedings for an offence do not bar civil proceedings

The commencement of criminal proceedings for an offence under section 2(1) does not prevent:

- (a) the commencement of civil proceedings for defamation against the defendant in the criminal proceedings, or
- (b) the determination of the civil proceedings pending the determination of the criminal proceedings.
